'Abol Ghungaru' Staged Brilliantly

NAGPUR, Jan. 21: "Balra- porting -role well n" of Nagpur staged two Mr. Parag Kulkarni directed children's plays, "Abol Ghun. the play. It was his first at- ru " and "Achat Gaonchi tempt and it collected seven fat Maoshi" in the local prizes. Yes, the arrangement shanwate Rang Mandir the of the stage and lighting of her day. Mr. Shashank Hedao, Music of Magician Mahant, dance direc- tion of Mr Madan Pande, a veteran in the subject, and others have their share in the success of the play. Similarly Mr Dilip Murthy, Mr Deepak Tamboli, Miss Sanhya Pande, and Milind Pande are also sha- re holders of success.

"Achat Gaonchi Afat Mao- shi" another childrens' play was staged later. Mr Ratnakar Matkar is the playwright and Mr Sanjay Pendse is the direc- tor. This too was staged neat- ly and prettily. It is no easy job to direct a play with a cast of over two dozen child characters. Mr Sanjay Pendse is a past master in stage direc- ting childrens' plays and he did his job well and satisfac- torily. The children characters and Mr Satish Pendse, (stage and lightening), Ms Uttara Parsekar (costumer), Mr. Sa- danand (Music), Mr. Shashank Deshpande and others, all are the shareholders of the success of the play.
