

'Ganari Maina' 2 Aug 89. well staged

NAGPUR, Aug. 1:— "Balranjan", the children's theatre wing of the local drama group "Ranjan Kala Mandir", recently staged Ratnakar Matkari's "Ganari Maina" at Dhanwate Rang Mandir.

The play was directed by Mr. Sanjay Pendse.

The cast gave a very disciplined performance, taking the young audience into the fantasy-land of fairies and princes.

Music for the play was scored by Sadanand, which evoked spontaneous appreciation from the audience.

Makrand Pande as "acharya" impressed. Others in the cast included Jai-deep Bhalerao, Sachind Khardenavis, Swapneel Chaudhary, Reshma Kulkarni, Prashant Chendke, Anjali Dake, Ravindra Bhute, Gauri Kale, Ajay Tinguriya, Yeshwant Vaze and Shantanu Pathak.

Set design and lighting was by Miss Atula Patwardhan and Vilas Lakhote. Production chief was Rajendra Harkare, and was assisted by Shrirang Sapre, Deepak Tamboli, Seema Kale and Aparna Deshmukh.

Anjali Dake, Swapneel Chaudhary, Reshma Kulkarni (from left) in a scene from "Ganari Maina".