

*“India Tribune Nite
is an assurance for our future.” Shebani*

Elements and Shades

The Concept of India Tribune Nite

BY SHEBANI KULKARNI

Over the years India Tribune Nite has become a tradition, a show-piece for all that is special in our community. High energy talent, confidence in presentation, the variety of characters, and the diversity of styles... it has all been there on display. And herein lies the importance of this event. It has become a platform for our aspiring talents, a platform for launching of trainers and gurus and a platform for recognition of outstanding achievements for both young and old alike.

This year is particularly special for play with, the effect can be spectacular. The rusts, the gold, the browns and blues will spur your imagination. At our show on May 30, these vibrant designs will be on display on the ramps through our host of beautiful models from Elite and on booths set up by local designer boutique Raaz. Our good friend Zainab Iqbal is the exclusive retailer for Rabani & Rakha at her designer's only boutique Raaz. The intoxicating beats for this fashion show have been picked from the fusion repertoire of legendary Indian tabla maestro Ustad Zakir Hussain and the effervescent drummer Sivamani.

fusion will be performed with a passion, vigor and skill which will make all of us proud. Our choreographers, Guru Dilshaad Khan, Guru Gauri Jog, techno and fusion master Charanjit and of course our Cosmic trio from India Kaveri Agashe, Sheetal Kolwalkar and Ketaki Phadke Shah, each have their own unique styles and nuances. Along with expressing this through their students, you will also see them in action themselves. It will also give all of you an insight into how our younger generation has adapted and adopted our centuries old art forms to the modern world.

an assortment of drinks at the bars. Their service standards are already being talked about across corporate and community circles and all the privileged attendees will be witness to this.

The newly-announced Board of Directors of India Tribune led by Dr. Virendra Bisla will announce their vision of what lies in future for the subscribers and followers of India Tribune at this event.

It has indeed been a privilege to coordinate and produce this show and I am sure when you see our young performers and their gurus in action, it

